Don Valley Engineering Win Business of the Year Award

Doncaster Chamber of Commerce awarded its top category of “Business of The Year”, to Don Valley Engineering. The award is presented to “the outstanding organization that has best demonstrated excellence in delivering results through leadership, policy and strategy and people involvement using effective systems delivering the needs and expectations of all stakeholders, customers and the community alike.”

Barry Smith centre and Roger Allen, pictured on the right were privileged to receive the trophy on behalf of the company and their colleagues.

It was a great honor for the Company which today is a modern, self confident and assured Company that looks to the future with a great deal of optimism.

With the warmest and very best of the seasons greetings.
